New Rail Sales and Marketing Executive

Don Turner has recently joined SEA as Sales and Marketing Executive (Rail). Don started his railway career with British Rail in 1991 and has worked for many years in the industry. He has also worked for Network Rail, Siemens Transportation Systems and joins SEA from AEA Technology Rail, where he worked in senior sales roles within their consultancy and products businesses for five years. His appointment underlines SEA's commitment to Rail and the company's dedication to deliver new technology, professional software development and programme management.
